Variations

18 coloured woodgrains

The united colours of Tradesmith

Tradesmith are pleased to announce the launch of Halo's Variations

Variations is a range of 18 coloured foiled woodgrains for the Halo profile, available in both

Rustique & System10

The range of colours is available in all the products offered from tradesmith, including windows, doors and some colours available with conservatories. The range is also available for our ancillaries including flat and moulded panels.

The range offers you and your customer a vast range of colour choices internally, externally or a combination of either.

Please read through the rest of the leaflet to view the various options and lead times.

Variations, a different approach to foiled windows

With the introduction of the new Variations range of colours and the profile options that are now available, we will be making significant changes to the current range.

With immediate effect the existing specification of having white woodgrain lamination as standard to the inside of either white or black (beck brown) to the outside will cease. These product will now be supplied with plain white profile to the inside unless specified by you.

Please remember black or white grained products will be smooth white on the inside unless specified otherwise.

Variations, base colours

As standard foils will be laminated on to a white based profile. Please see the table below for the various options. Certain colours can be laminated to either brown or caramel bases.
